MEET JAMILIA, OUR CHIEF PHILANTHROPY OFFICER

Since 2001, Jamilia B. Shipman, MA, CFRE has learned a few things about the joys and challenges of managing nonprofit organizations. As a fund development expert, Jamilia knows fundraising theory, and more importantly, how to implement best practices. Jamilia's passion is faith-based and grassroots organizations.

Jamilia earned a masters degree in Philanthropy and Development from Saint Mary's University of Minnesota and has taken courses at the Lilly Family School of Philanthropy and the Fundraising School in Indianapolis, IN. She earned her CFRE credential in 2016 and served as an instructor for the CFRE Review Course.

A native of the Hampton Roads region of Virginia, Jamilia spends every moment she can relaxing at the beach and listening to NPR.

Why Philanthropy?

Our lives and our community are enriched when we take the time to care for one another. Philanthropy is about a higher calling to serve and support each other as individuals and as a society. Supporting those who raise awareness and tackle difficult problems is my passion.

CLIENT TESTIMONIALS

"Jamilia is creative, passionate, and innovative. She cares deeply for the well-being of others and uses her skills to raise money on their behalf. She sees the big picture but also works hard to bring together all the details. She is approachable and has a contagious laugh that makes working with her very enjoyable."

"World's Greatest Not For Profit Fundraiser!"

"She has tremendous energy, a wonderful team attitude and all the skills to back it up! Her energy, knowledge and attitude make it very easy for her to connect with donors and make them feel at ease, confident and ready to give!"

"Jamilia is mission driven and passionate about that which she is involved in. She is also a very creative problem solver who doesn't allow challenges to stop her from fulfilling her mission."
